

Community Forum Discussion Post Rubric

	4 (A)	3 (B)	2 (C)	1 (D)	0 (F)
Ideas and Content	Student has posted insightful and persuasive claims supported by evidence that directly relate to the essential question/prompt. Student has also read and responded to AT LEAST two other students' posts in a thoughtful and respectful manner.	Student has posted insightful claims supported by evidence that relate to the essential question/prompt. Student has also read and responded to AT LEAST one other student's post in a thoughtful and respectful manner.	Student has posted claims generally supported by evidence that usually relate to the essential question/prompt.	Student has posted claims that are off-topic or that are unsupported because of erroneous or nonexistent evidence. OR Student has repeated what has been said in previous posts and does not offer any new insight.	Post contains content that is inappropriate for school audiences. This may include, but is not limited to disrespectful comments directed at another classmate, vulgar or offensive language, or otherwise defamatory statements about another human being
Grammar, Mechanics, and Punctuation	Post is clean and error-free	Post has few errors that do not hinder reader comprehension	Post has some errors that hinder comprehension, but overall message of post is understood	Numerous errors greatly impede reader understanding of the post	Post is filled with grammar, punctuation, and spelling errors that make understanding impossible